

The Modern Greek Studies program at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

presents

TEACHING GREEK AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

October 27 & 28, 2009

Lucy Ellis Lounge, Foreign Language Building 1080, 707 South Mathews Avenue, Urbana, IL 61801

WORKSHOP PROGRAM - Wednesday, October 28

1pm Opening remarks by Prof. Doug Kibbee, Director of SLCL

1.05pm BRIAN JOSEPH, Ohio State University

"A novel paradigm for teaching LCTLs"

1.40pm MARK JANSE, University of Ghent

"A graduate curriculum for Modern Greek: incorporating Modern Greek dialectology and folklore"

2.15pm NIOVI ANTONOPOULOU, University of Thessaloniki

"Some common pitfalls in the Greek FL classroom"

2.50pm Coffee break

3.00pm AMALIA ARVANITI, University of California, San Diego

"Phonetic and phonological aspects of Greek second language acquisition"

3.35pm STAVROULA TSIPLAKOU, University of Cyprus

"Teaching language variation: a case study from Cyprus"

4.10pm PANAYOTIS PAPPAS, Simon Fraser University

"Distance education courses in Greek: The Odysseus Language Tutor"

4.45pm Coffee break

5.00pm Discussion

Tuesday, October 27, 6pm, FLB 1080

pre-workshop session on

MINORITY LANGUAGES IN GREECE

Screening of the film "Sabiha"

with an introduction by director

Lila Adamou (CNRS-LACITO)

Sponsored by The School of Literatures, Cultures and Linguistics, The Department of Linguistics,
The Program in Second Language Acquisition and Teacher Education, and The European Union Center

For more information contact Dr. Marina Terkourafi mt217@illinois.edu